Council Update: 800 fewer PBC children waiting for mentors

Bring STEAM to your afterschool program this spring

Apply online for legal services through Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County

Since 2012, aggressive recruitment efforts by United Way of Palm Beach County's Mentor Center has led to more local mentor-mentee matches - and 800 fewer children waiting for a mentor. However despite its efforts to recruit more mentors, especially male mentors of color, more than 1,200 Palm Beach County children remain on the wait list. That's why, at its most recent meeting, Children's Services Council's board proclaimed January as Mentoring Awareness Month. Click here to read more.

Do you want to offer engaging activities that explore the worlds of science, technology, engineering, arts and math? Now is your chance to be a part of Prime Time's next STEAM cohort starting in January 2019. Spots are filling up quickly, complete the interest form to hold your spot (minimum of three practitioners per site required to attend four out of the six training modules). Click here to learn more and access the interest form.

The Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County is now accepting online applications for legal services, including Spanish and Haitian-Creole application translations. Legal matters that can be applied for online include consumer, domestic violence, education, elder law, family law, housing, immigration, low income taxpayer clinic, relative caregivers and wage disputes. Applications can be submitted by potential clients, family members or friends and social services staff. Click here to learn more and apply.
