LWV LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS'
OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Conversations: Palm Beach County Schools

Join us for an update on how the School District is working to close the Digital Divide in Palm Beach County and how the District is preparing for its next strategic plan, including using community input and lessons learned to inform where resources should be focused in the years ahead. Mr. Tierney will also discuss the current legislative session and court rulings and how they may affect the school district.

April 7, 2021

6:00 PM via Zoom

Edward Tierney

Mr. Edward Tierney currently serves as the Chief of Staff for the School District of Palm Beach County, the 10th largest school district in the nation and fourth largest in the State of Florida. He has worked for the District for 18 years and has held a variety of positions from Behavior Intervention Associate to Principal at John I. Leonard High School. Under his leadership as Principal, the School's graduation rate increased by 22 percent and progress was made in improving student GPA and increasing enrollment in advanced coursework. Mr. Tierney previously served in the United States Marine Corps. He and his wife have two adult children.
