Holocaust survivor Mary Eckstein to share her story at PBSC in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Who: Mary Eckstein, who survived the Holocaust as a child, will share her story at Palm Beach State College. The event is free and open to the public, but attendees are asked to RSVP.

What: Eckstein will talk about the sad memories and how hard it was during the dark years of the Holocaust. Eckstein was eight years old when the Holocaust began and was forced into the Budapest Ghetto by the Arrow Cross Party. She remembers she “was always scared and hungry” throughout the ordeal, and her family was constantly trying to escape. She eluded death and was saved when the Russian army liberated Budapest in 1945.

When: Thursday, Jan. 23
9:30 to 10:50 a.m.

Where: Public Safety Building, Room 108
Palm Beach State College, Lake Worth campus
4200 Congress Ave.
Lake Worth, FL 33461-4796

Why: The event is being held in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance Day.
