- 6) Ensuring all youth remain safe from violent crime

My Brother's Keeper Network (MBKN), in partnership with Birth to 22: United for Brighter Futures, brings forth the 2019 Race to Equity Summit: Facing, Embracing and Leading with Equity. As a community, Palm Beach County recognizes the vital importance of collective convening, connecting and collaborating to address the systemic barriers that limit opportunity for communities of color. This work falls naturally within the scope of MBKN and Birth to 22, two of Palm Beach County's flagship initiatives dedicated to advancing equity for youth of color. Together, we know that advancing equity is the surest path to ensuring ALL of Palm Beach County's children and youth reach their optimal development and can fully contribute to the health and wealth of our community.

The goals of this conference are to:

- Boldly face racial inequities by examining how many of our systems have perpetuated institutional, structural and systemic barriers adversely impacting children, youth and young adults of color.
- Intentionally embrace strategies using a racial equity lens to challenge reforms in our government, education, health, labor, housing, social services and criminal justice systems.
- Unapologetically lead with race, tackling burning – as well as deep-rooted – issues and bringing forward innovative and inclusive solutions to positively transform the lives of children, youth and young adults of color.
