FRIDAY WITH THE FRIENDS BOOK CLUB: NEWS OF THE WORLD
FRIDAY, MARCH 12

11:30 AM – 1:00 PM

Live on Zoom

Join the Friends of the Mandel Public Library and other book lovers every second Friday of the month for a lively discussion of selected books. March's book will be News of the World by Paulette Jiles. In the aftermath of the Civil War, an aging itinerant news reader agrees to transport a young captive of the Kiowa back to her people in this exquisitely rendered, morally complex novel of historical fiction. Informal book chatter begins at 11:30 AM followed by a moderated book discussion at noon. No registration required. Visit the library's online calendar for the Zoom link.

Registration is required and limited to 17 people.

RESILIENT COMMUNITIES FILM
SCREENING: FIRE & FLOOD: QUEER RESILIENCE IN THE ERA OF

CLIMATE CHANGE

SATURDAY, MARCH 27

10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Live on Zoom

Join us for a screening of Fire & Flood: Queer Resilience in the Era of Climate Change. This 2018 documentary tells the stories of Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico and the fires in Santa Rose, California, two near-simultaneous climate-related disasters in the fall of 2017, through the voices of LGBTQ+ people who lived through them and were part of the community response. The film explores the vulnerability of LGBTQ+ communities to climate disasters and lifts up queer and trans strategies for resilience, transition, and survival. No registration required. Visit the library's online calendar for the Zoom link. Resilient Communities: Libraries Respond to Climate Change is a pilot program of the American Library Association.

AUSTEN AND AGING
SATURDAY, MARCH 27

2:00 – 3:30 PM

Auditorium

What was aging like in Jane Austen's Regency England? An old maid by 28, an average life expectancy of 40, high infancy mortality rates.... and more. Join the Jane Austen Society as they discuss this topic and Austen's older characters in her novels. Registration is required and limited to 17 people.

SUNDAYS

PLENA COMBATIVA MUSICAL PERFORMANCE

SUNDAY, MARCH 14

2:00 – 3:00 PM

Auditorium and live on Zoom

The all-female Plena Combativa band is fighting sexism with every performance in this traditionally male-dominated Puerto Rican folk genre. Enjoy their repertoire of reinvented classics and original compositions live on Zoom directly from San Juan, Puerto Rico. The program will be presented in Spanish and English. To view the concert in the library auditorium, registration is required and limited to 17 people. To view from home, no registration required. Visit the library's online calendar for the Zoom link. This performance is dedicated to Ada Briñas, Friend of the Mandel Public Library. Attendees are invited to stop by the library and pick up a lapel ribbon to wear in her memory at the performance. In addition, on Saturday, March 13, pick up a sweet from Napoleon Bakery along with a lapel ribbon from the Customer Service desk from 9:30 AM while supplies last. Sponsored by the Friends of the Mandel Public Library.
