Palm Beach County District Six

COVID-19 Update and Resources

The coronavirus pandemic has brought forth a set of sudden shared challenges and sacrifices. This is a time that requires patience from us all—no one has been left unaffected. I urge you to stay at home as much as possible and practice social distancing. Please keep everyone who is suffering through this terrible illness or experiencing economic hardship in your thoughts and prayers.

I am heartened by the swift response of government and business to assist our country through this trying time, and I want to share with you some helpful links and resources:

Finally, while we are faced with difficult news each day, let us not forget to remain strong for the youngest amongst us. They desperately need our stability and guidance during these unexpected days of upheaval. One of those youngest is Aurora, the two-month-old daughter of my aide, Joseph. Here's a big smile from beautiful Aurora to lift us up!
