Writers LIVE! Presents: Lynda Cohen Loigman

Acclaimed historical fiction author Lynda Cohen Loigman received a B.A. in English and American Literature from Harvard College and a law degree from Columbia Law School. Her heartfelt debut, “The Two-Family House,” written while a student of the Writing Institute at Sarah Lawrence College, tells a multigenerational family saga woven around long buried secrets. The book was an instant hit, receiving praise from the Jewish Book Council, Redbook, and Buzzfeed. “The Wartime Sisters,” her fiercely anticipated second novel, is a mesmerizing tale of sisterhood, sacrifices, and identity set in 1930s Brooklyn and the Springfield Armory during World War II. Cohen resides with her husband and two children in Chappaqua, New York. Preregister beginning Fri, Jan 11.

Visit <http://www.pbclibrary.org/writers-live-2019> for the complete lineup and event registration. Please check listings for exact dates, as preregistration dates may vary.

Local, independent booksellers will be providing sales at every event. A percentage of each sale is donated to the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System, directly benefiting library services and activities throughout the County. Your support is greatly appreciated!
