

Pathways Biology Internship Opening at A.R.M. Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge

Palm Beach County Office of Community Revitalization <gschott@pbcgov.org>

Mon 3/11/2024 5:36 PM

To:Updates <updates@gladesinitiative.org>

There is a Pathways biology internship opening here at A.R.M. Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge. Applications close on March 13, 2024 at 11:59pm. Apply on USAJobs here: Student Trainee (Biological Sciences), GS-0499-4/5/7 FPL 9

Job Announcement

The Department of the Interior Internship Program (Pathways) is designed to provide students enrolled in a wide variety of educational institutions, from college to graduate level, with opportunities to work in agencies and explore Federal careers while still in school and while getting paid for the work performed. Interns may be non-competitively converted to a term, career-conditional or career appointment within 120 days following successful completion of all their educational and work requirements.

If you know of any people currently enrolled as a student who may be interested, please send this to them and encourage them to apply! This is a really great way for people to begin their career with the federal government. Learn more about this position as well as the other positions available at additional locations at this website.

For more details, please contact Ms. Rae Milmore, Park Ranger / Urban Refuge Coordinator at 561-735-6025.

Palm Beach County Office of Community Revitalization | 2300 North Jog Rd, 2nd Floor, West Palm Beach, FL 33411

Unsubscribe updates@gladesinitiative.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by gschott@pbcgov.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!