2. IN THE DISTRICT

Superintendent explores the "heart of the school"

Sign up now for 2022
summer camp

In honor of National Library Week, Superintendent Mike Burke visited the media center at Discovery Key Elementary, where he learned that instilling a love for reading in children is only one of the many important roles of media specialists and media clerks.

Check out the latest episode of Burke at Work.

Summer camp is back at 50 District elementary schools for elementary-aged children, including incoming kindergarteners and outgoing fifth graders. The programs will start on May 31 and end on August 5. Register by contacting the site director.

3. IN THE SCHOOLS

Paper tutoring propels students toward success

Paper is an online tutoring program that extends a helping hand 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for free to students. See how teachers and students at JFK Middle School are already experiencing positive results in the classroom.

4. IN THE COMMUNITY

Congratulations to Dwyer Awards finalists!

27 out of 28 finalists for the 2022 William T. Dwyer Awards for Excellence in Education are from District-operated schools. The award winners will be announced during an in-person ceremony on Tuesday, May 10, at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts.

See the full list of Dwyer Awards finalists.

Strengthening connections with Hispanic community

Engagement with Hispanic students, parents, and community members is set to expand, thanks to the newest member of The Education Network and Communications Department, Daisy Cedeno. Drawing on her expertise from an 18-year career in broadcasting, learn more about how Cedeno plans to share important information with Spanish-speaking families.

5. IN THE NEWS FEED

It's Assistant Principals Week! Across the District, APs keep schools running smoothly day after day, support school staff with a wide range of roles and responsibilities, and lead students on a path to success. Thank you, APs!
