

Norton Museum of Art

BLACK HISTORY FAMILY DAY

Sponsored by PNC Arts Alive

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24 / NOON - 5 PM

See fascinating works by great African-American artists and enjoy art-making, music, refreshments, and more!

FREE / NO RSVP REQUIRED

The Norton Museum of Art is hosting Black History Family Day, highlighting art by African American artists, telling their stories, inspiring visitors to make art, and featuring music and theater by African American performers. A focus exhibition of paintings and drawings by Jean-Michel Basquiat, who introduced graffiti to the art world in the 1980s, will also highlight this special event, and will be on view through March 18.

The free event features:

Art-making workshops with artists Kianga Jinaki, Lupe Lawrence, and Khaulah Naima Nuruddin.

Performances by Mr. Trombone, Eric Biddines, Le Nubian Dance, Inc.; Abasi Hanif; Deltoiya Goodman and the CORE Ensemble.

Discussions with author Emeree Jimerson Clarke on the history of Pleasant City, West Palm Beach; Ellen Roberts, Harold and Anne Berkley Smith Curator of American Art on African American Art at the Norton.

Tours with Museum docents and the Museum's Teen Advisory Squad (TASQ).
