LWVPBC WELCOMES NEW INTERNS

LUISA RINCON is Vice President of her class and a member of student council. She is ranked #1 on the tennis team, a varsity volleyball player, and a cheerleader. She has a keen interest in criminal justice and recently completed the Justice Literacy internship with the Palm Beach County Clerk and Comptroller's office. Luisa is hard working, patient, detail oriented, analytical and bilingual (English and Spanish). She wants to learn ways to help her generation understand the importance of voting.

ASPEN HOUGH is a senior at Atlantic Community High School and a student at Palm Beach State College, where she has completed four courses (with a 4.0 average). She also completed a Justice Literacy internship with the Palm Beach County Clerk and Comptroller. Aspen is passionate about voting advocacy, participation in local government, and mass incarceration prevention. Additionally, she works at Chick-Fil-A.

100 years! WE'RE PREPARING! 100 years!

"A Whole New World." On May 6, 2020, we will be celebrating the League's 100th Anniversary with a spectacular event and luncheon at the Cohen Pavilion in the Kravits Center in downtown West Palm Beach. We will assist with area carpooling as we do not want you to miss this once in a hundred years event.

You can learn how to get involved in the planning and preparation in our "Ways to Help the League" section of the NEWS, below. We need your help. More information will be coming soon.

LWVPBC NEEDS YOUR HELP

Please share your skills and experience. There is a need for help in the following areas:

* League's 100th Anniversary, May 6, 2020 *******

Consider joining one of the subcommittees that is helping us prepare for the very special day.

- Attendance: sell tickets and whole tables to attendees
- Decorations: enhance the room décor and help with last minute set ups

- Entertainment/Speaker: secure presenters
- Facility: assist with reception and room setup
- Program: sell advertisements in the program book
- Publicity: assist with event awareness in the community
- Sponsorship: assist with obtaining sponsors to underwrite the event

Be part of this “once every 100 year” celebration. Contact Penny Butler-Schillinger at bschill48@yahoo or (954) 736-9486 to join the planning.
