

COMMUNITY EVENT: DON'T SELL GRANDMA'S HOUSE

Join us for a powerful community gathering dedicated to preserving generational wealth and protecting family legacies!

Saturday, April 5, 2025
10 AM - 2 PM

Where?

Belle Glade Library

725 NW 4th St., Belle Glade, FL. 33430

Why Attend?

As housing markets change, it's more important than ever to hold on to the homes that built our families. This event will dive into why keeping Grandma's house isn't just about property—it's about preserving our history, creating future opportunities, and empowering our communities.

What to Expect:

- Expert advice on homeownership, inheritance, and how to protect your family assets
- Real stories from those who've successfully held on to their generational homes
- Resources to help you make informed decisions about your property
- Interactive Q&A, housing resources, and refreshments

Let's come together to build stronger, wealthier, and more resilient communities. See you there!

Unlock Your Future:
Generational Wealth Begins with YOU.
Don't Sell Grandma's House.

RSVP now and be a part of the conversation to: Keep Grandma's House in the Family!
