Everybody Dance at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center on February 8!

Disco IS the sound of the 70s and it still has the power to get us movin' and groovin. While the 70s are fondly remembered for classic movies, TV shows and video games, it's the music of the ME decade that has the ultimate power to take us back in time.

Travel back to the days when Saturday Night Fever was a box-office smash, Donna Summer was the queen of the air waves and Beethoven had his first top-40 hit. It was a music revolution – where records became hits from the dance clubs and DJ's had the power to break records and watch them climb up the charts. Songs like "Last Dance," "Don't Leave Me This Way", "Funkytown", "I Will Survive," "YMCA", "Ring My Bell" and "Rock The Boat" were all tested by DJ's in the biggest clubs... from New York's Studio 54 and Ice Palace to clubs across the country and disco became a musical phenomenon.

You're invited to celebrate those disco days and boogie nights with a cast of New York's top performers singing and dancing to super-hits by Abba, the Bee Gees, Gloria Gaynor, Barry Manilow, Donna Summer and more! The stage will be ablaze with a live disco band. And like a DJ spinning records at the hottest club, this live band is a non-stop party! It's hit after hit -- all reminding you that "You Should be Dancin', yeah!"

Come and join the party with Disco Inferno: A 70s Celebration at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center on Thursday, February 8 at 7:30 pm. Prior to the show, a traditional "covered dish" dinner is available for purchase from 5:30 – 7:00 pm. This annual fundraising event features your favorite dishes prepared by some of the best cooks in the Glades!

The Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center is located on Palm Beach State College's Belle Glade Campus at 1977 College Drive in Belle Glade.
