Food for the hungry shouldn't have a time limit.

Act now to tell the Trump Administration that you oppose its proposed Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) rule that would take food away from 755,000 people. The proposed rule would time limit food benefits for unemployed and underemployed people who can't document sufficient weekly work hours. They would lose their SNAP eligibility after three months.

1. Go to FRAC.org/timelimitcomments to tell the Trump Administration why this proposed rule is a bad idea that would only make hunger and poverty in America far worse. We ask that you modify the language provided in our model comment letter so that at least one-third of it reflects your own thoughts and experiences. This will ensure that each submitted comment counts as a unique comment.
2. Click to Tweet: "Let's make some noise! I just told the Trump Administration not to take food away from 755,000 people. You can submit your comment via @fractweets' platform"
3. Forward this email to mobilize others to take action on this important issue.

The public comment period ends on April 2.
