

The Center@USF
for Child Welfare
UPCOMING EVENTS

Engaging Dads, September 9, 2020, 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. (Eastern)

This training will highlight the importance of actively involved fathers and discuss a generational breakdown of self-realization by men that being a dad is critical to their legacy and the success of their family. All Pro Dad's Lesley Bateman and Keith Vickery will assist with identifying ways that you can utilize the All Pro Dad's school program, to engage ALL fathers including biological, stepfathers, grandfathers, foster fathers and mentors.

Engaging Dads Webinar Invitation

2020 Safety Planning Series

Join us for an informative and engaging training series on Safety Planning. This 6 part series will help you build skills to effectively engage with families to gather and accurately assess information to support your decision making and planning for safety. Each 90 minute training, begins at Noon (eastern) and will use a case example and include a question and answer session.

2020 Safety Planning Series Announcement

The Center @ USF, in collaboration with DCF, is offering Grant Writing training for all levels. Beginning with Grant Writing 101 attendees will:

Gain an understanding of the overall process for seeking and applying for grant funding; delineate key terminology used by funders in grant applications; outline key preparations that should be taken when applying for a grant; understand the core components of a grant proposal; Articulate your guiding values and how to operationalize these in your approach; articulate the strengths and capacity of your organization/partnership in a way that convinces funders your team is uniquely qualified to carry out the proposed work; and receive a template to guide the development of grant proposals.

Grant Writing 101 will be offered:

- 9/29/2020 @ 11:00 – 12:30
- 9/30/2020 @ 1:00 – 2:30
- 10/1/2020 @ 2:30 – 4:00

Advanced modules will be offered moving forward, topics include Identifying Funding Opportunities and Forming Partnerships; Writing Persuasively & Learning to Write to What Funders Want; Writing Persuasively & Learning to Write to What Funders Want; Writing a Statement of Need; and many more.

Stay tuned for more to come!

- Transition Planning - Hear from Independent Living Staff and Youth about policy and best practice to help youth successful transition to adulthood
- Racism in Child Welfare - Explore how historical trauma and race impact behavioral health and family serving systems
- Case Management 101 - An interactive online training and resource guide for new case managers