

Palm Beach Victims' Rights Coalition

August 5, 2016

Dear Family and Friends:

In 2007 the U.S. Congress designated September 25 as the National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims. Remembrance events have long been a part of the National Crime Victims' Rights Movement. It is on these occasions that we pause and honor those who have suffered an untimely loss. In keeping with this tradition, the Palm Beach County Victims' Rights Coalition will honor the memory of victims of homicide on Sunday September 25, 2015.

Palm Beach Shores Community Center
90 Edwards Lane
Palm Beach Shores, FL, 33404

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Please feel free to bring a photo of your loved one to display during the ceremony.

We would like to thank everyone that attended last year and hope to see you again this year. Whether you are a survivor or come to offer support for those that are, you are what makes this National Day of Remembrance a special. We hope that you are able to join us. If you have any questions, please contact me at (561) 355-2418 option 3 or by emailing ashaffer@pbcgov.org.

Sincerely,

Amy Shaffer MEd LMHC

Take Blue Heron Boulevard east and cross the Blue Heron Bridge. Take the first right after the bridge. You'll be coming south on Lake Drive. Come south to Edwards Lane, and turn left onto Edwards Lane. You'll pass the Town Hall and Police Department. Go to the very end and the Community Center will be on your right.
