

Schedule of SDPBC Facebook Live Events (first one 10/1 @ 5:00PM)

In Dr. Fennoy's update last week, he mentioned a series of Facebook Live events the District would be hosting over the course of the next several weeks. We have one scheduled tomorrow around student mental health supports, so if you could share with the delegation and ask that they promote it with their constituents, that would be much appreciated (graphic below and attached). A tentative schedule for the remaining events is below, but I will send you the official graphics once our Comms dept creates them.
