

The Constitutional Tax Collector whole-heartedly supports the tourist booking and home-sharing industries. That's why we support the update to County's current 26-year-old Tourist Development Tax (TDT) ordinance. The proposed ordinance reflects the changes brought about by the digital revolution on the short-term rental booking industry, will make it easier to participate in the home-sharing industry and consolidates all TDT requirements into a single ordinance.

Gannon supports passage to help TDT filers
