Immigrant Families' Access to Nutrition: Threats and Strategies to Push Back

August 14, 2019 - 2:00 PM Eastern (1:00 PM Central, 12:00 PM Mountain, 11:00 AM Pacific)

From “public charge” regulations to enforcement actions, immigrant families face a range of threats that may impact nutrition programs and resources. This joint webinar brings FRAC, the National WIC Association, and Feeding America's Protecting Immigrant Families Campaign for a closer look at the Trump administration’s “invisible wall” and to co-hunger advocates, nutrition providers, and food banks can take to protect the nutrition, health, and well-being of immigrants. Participants will leave the webinar with 1) a basic understanding of the administrative threats and how they fit together with national advocates’ messages for families, social services agencies, and decision makers; and 3) opportunities to act.
