Avoid heatstroke and sports dehydration this summer

Safe Kids Worldwide has provided tips and advice to keep your family safe this summer. Click here for tips to avoid heatstroke. Click here for everything you need to know to keep your kids safe from dehydration when playing sports.

School may be out, but learning should never stop. Summer learning loss - or what's sometimes called "summer slide"- results in one of four Palm Beach County kindergarteners, first-graders and second-graders coming back to school with a drop in reading proficiency. Summer learning loss also is greater among lower-income children. That's why Children's Services Council of Palm Beach County proclaimed Thursday that July will be Summer Learning Month and July 12 will be recognized as National Summer Learning Day.
