

Virtual Webinar
September 1, 2021
10am-11am

Tax laws change frequently which require individuals to stay current to understand the impact of these changes on their personal tax returns. There are currently several proposals in Congress that could be implemented by year-end.

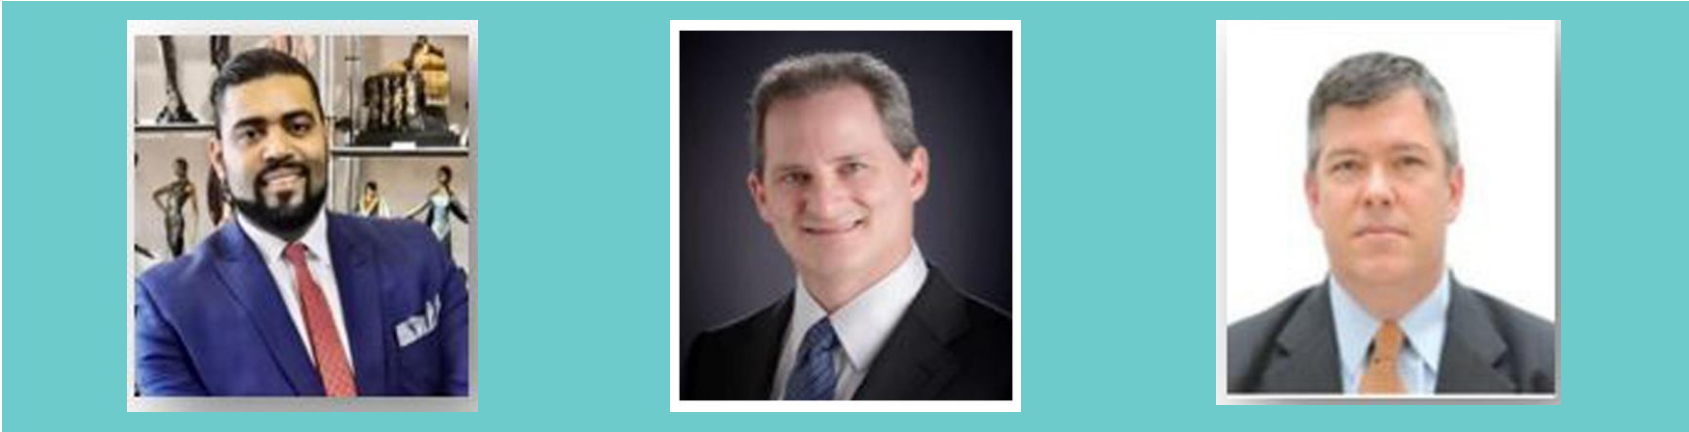

This practical webinar provides a comprehensive update and an instant working knowledge of all key tax provisions that will allow the attendee to determine what strategies might work best for them.

You'll benefit from:

- A detailed explanation of recent income tax legislation
- An update of pending tax legislation, which is likely to pass and other developments
- In-depth examination of practical examples
