The second hour brings ADVOCACY from an initiative at UVA, the state in FL, and nationally.

After a lunch break, we progress to RESEARCH about Caregiving Youth with highlights from UNC Chapel Hill, UM Miller School of Medicine, and the University of WI.

The final hour is devoted to EDUCATION about Caregiving Youth with the launch of a new program by the FL Dept of Adolescent Health, our District Behavioral Health, and in the UK and through the National Alliance for Caregiving.

The Closing includes Kaylin, a Caregiving Youth from Tallahassee, and a poignant film clip.

The American Association of Caregiving Youth (AACY) is a Florida based 501(c) (3) non-profit corporation that began serving the greater Boca Raton community in 1998. Today it is the only organization of its kind in the United States for addressing the issues surrounding the silent, vulnerable, and hidden population, conservatively estimated to exceed 5 million children ages 8-18 years who provide care for chronically ill, injured, elderly or disabled family members.

In partnership with schools, it prioritizes students in greatest need of services and increases their ability to remain in school through counseling, education, activities, and respite while strengthening families by linking them with community services.
