Activities included free games and rides for the children, including three water slides, four bungee jump stations, an obstacle course, dunking tank and more. There were 50 arts and crafts vendors and numerous food vendors who fed the crowd throughout the day until the fireworks. Headline entertainment included the Magic of Motown and Restless Heart.

Co-sponsored each year by the City of Belle Glade, the Black Gold Jubilee Committee consisting of about 30 volunteers and the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce, the event is the largest end-of-harvest festival held in the Glades each year. We want to thank our businesses for their financial support, because it would not be possible to have such a wonderful festival without their donations!

Mark your calendars now for next year's Jubilee, which is set for Saturday, April 8, 2017.
