Educate. Affirm. Inspire.

In the past month, we've had the privilege of educating students, parents, and school staff across our community — empowering them with the knowledge to recognize exploitation, stay safe, and support one another.

Every conversation matters. Every person reached strengthens prevention. Thank you to our partners and communities for being part of this important work.

 We're proud to share that the Human Trafficking Coalition of the Palm Beaches has joined the Attorney General's 100% Club — a statewide initiative recognizing organizations committed to training 100% of their team to identify and report human trafficking.

Together, we're strengthening awareness, increasing vigilance, and taking action to protect our community.
