Palm Beach County Youth Services Department Has Released the Youth Master Plan 2.0

The Palm Beach County Youth Services Department is proud to announce the release of the Palm Beach County Youth Master Plan 2.0 (YMP 2.0), an update to the original “Strengthening the Steps to Success” Youth Master Plan for Palm Beach County, published in 2016.

The updated plan is now available online at https://pbcbirthto22.com/pdf/Birth_to_22_Youth_Master_Plan_2.0.pdf, providing a guide designed to UNITE the community to strengthen the key supports children need to make steady progress towards adult success.

The YMP 2.0 will be officially distributed at the 8th Annual Birth to 22 Task Force Meeting, scheduled to take place on Tuesday, February 18, 2025. The highly anticipated meeting brings together key stakeholders from across the county, including youth, parents and caregivers, community organizations, and local leaders, to agree on 2025 goals and create action teams to help achieve the goals.

The Palm Beach County Youth Services Department and Children’s Services Council of Palm Beach County continue to serve as the backbone agencies for Birth to 22 as the alliance has grown to more than 300 organizations, stakeholders and community leaders.
