The US Census Bureau is recruiting thousands of people

The community-wide demonstration project with the TMW Center for Early Learning and Public Health at the University of Chicago, in partnership with Children's Services Council of Palm Beach County, is moving forward. Since announcing the project back in October 2018, CSC has been working alongside the TMW Center to develop relationships across the community at birthing centers, pediatric clinics and other local organizations. Later this month, the project will launch its first intervention, TMW-Newborn, with English- and Spanish-speaking families at St. Mary's Hospital in Palm Beach.
