It has been said that if Larry the Cable Guy, Il Divo and Mrs. Doubtfire had a baby, that child would be The 3 Redneck Tenors. Written by opera veteran Matthew Lord with music arranged by award-winning composer Craig Bohmler and starring Mr. Lord, Blake Davidson, and Jonathan Fruge, The 3 Redneck Tenors were top finalists on "America's Got Talent" and have been thrilling audiences since 2006.

On Golden Pond

Friday, March 23, 2018 at 7:30 PM

$35 Adults * $15 Children & PBSC Students/Staff

On Golden Pond is an American treasure. Many of us are familiar with the story through the Academy Award-winning film adaptation starring Henry and Jane Fonda and Katharine Hepburn. Others have attended one of the literally thousands of stage productions this extraordinary play has received over the years. Beguilingly simple, this humane, poetic, and often very funny portrayal of a family in crisis as it pulls apart and then finds itself again has been touching audiences for decades. Something deep and profound resonates through the events that unfold in this American masterpiece brilliantly penned by Ernest Thompson. We all have mothers and fathers, we all cope with aging, and we have all experienced being lost—and hopefully found. It is this dynamic, this finding of family and the love therein, that keeps On Golden Pond forever relevant. www.montanarep.org

Comedian Ventriloquist Taylor Mason

Friday, February 23, 2018 at 7:30 PM

$20 Adults * $10 Children & PBSC Students/Staff

Taylor Mason's quick wit, flawless delivery and polished material make him a hit with audiences of all ages. He is a ventriloquist, musician and stand-up comedian. This is not the kind of act that draws media attention, big-time television sitcom deals or lucrative movie offers. Taylor Mason stays out of the bedroom and out of the bathroom (which sets him apart from most comedy acts today) and concentrates on jokes and punch lines. He respects people's differences and concentrates on getting laughs. Does it sound old school? Only if music, laughter and the shared experience of sheer joy and excitement are out-of-date. These are Taylor Mason's calling cards as a comedian and the pillars on which he has built an outstanding, consistent and truly American career as an entertainer.
