Conversations on Covid, an interactive video session hosted by LWVPBC President Ken Thomas with Brent Schillinger MD, co-chair of the league's healthcare committee.

This will be an opportunity to learn first-hand how the Corona virus is affecting our local community, what's up with testing, what we can expect in the weeks to come, and what we need to do to increase the odds that we will survive in one piece. The focus will be on both the physical and emotional components of this pandemic.

Topic: Conversations on Covid
