

Armed Forces Day

The Historical Society of Palm Beach County honors U.S. troops annually with a free family event in celebration of Armed Forces Day on Saturday, May 18; 10am-2pm. Visitors to the Richard and Pat Johnson Palm Beach County History Museum will be entertained and informed during a colorful commemoration of our nation's military history and Palm Beach County's veterans. Displays and presentations will share the county's role in American war efforts and local battles fought on native soil.

This event is free and open to the public. Free parking is provided in the 4th street lot across for the fire station.
